

THE TOP 5 BENEFITS OF WORKING WITH A SAFETY REIMAGINED BADGED PARTNER

TAKE YOUR SAFETY TO THE NEXT LEVEL, WITH EXPERT KNOWLEDGE & SUPPORT

Motorola Solutions has developed the first and only integrated ecosystem that unifies voice, video, data and analytics on one common platform. We call it Safety Reimagined. This entire ecosystem can be provided to you by only a select number of partners that hold a Safety Reimagined badge. These partners have completed an extensive program of training, customer shadowing, and more – all to deliver you our unified ecosystem that can provide the safety and efficiency outcomes your organization needs.

Here are the top 5 benefits you and your organization will receive from working with this exclusive group of partners:

1. Knowledgeable Resource Across your Entire Motorola Solutions Technology Ecosystem

Have direct access to a Safety Reimagined Badged Partner who understands our unified ecosystem from end-to-end and can serve as a single, local point of contact for support across your entire ecosystem.

2. A Trusted Advisor to Build Your Path Forward

Safety Reimagined Badged Partners can serve as a trusted advisor who have extensive experience and knowledge to help develop your technology ecosystem roadmap based on your organization's unique budget, pace and needs.

3. Long-Term Cost Savings

Receive future long-term cost savings by investing in a single ecosystem from a vendor who understands the unique and specific circumstances of your organization.

4. Expert Deployment and Support

As part of being a Safety Reimagined Badged Partner, the providers staff dedicated resources within their organization solely focused on ensuring the successful deployment and support for your technology ecosystem.

5. Understanding Solutions for your Unique Challenges

Through their extensive experience working with customers and as a part of their required training, our Safety Reimagined Badged Partners have a deep understanding of the common security and efficiency challenges facing a diverse variety of industries and how our technology ecosystem can best address them.

Safety is the foundation on which everything else is built, inextricably linked with efficiency and productivity. Only when an organization's people, assets and operations are safe, can it truly and fully commit to its mission, purpose or objectives. Our mission is to help you build that foundation of safety through an integrated ecosystem of the latest safety technologies.
